Message Notes

Walk Through The Word - Part 40
"Fulfilled in Christ" - Matthew 5:1-20

As we open the Gospels and explore Matthew 5, we will discover how Jesus doesn't sweep away the Old Testament Law and Prophets, but brings the entire biblical plan to its ultimate fulfillment—inviting us into a transformed heart and true Kingdom righteousness.

1) The _____ completed - Jesus fulfills the Old Covenant

- Jesus does this in three key ways:
  - _____: He fulfills every pattern and promise
  - _____: He reaveals the truth of God's commands
  - _____: He embodies perfect obedience to the Law

2) The _____ restored - Jesus elevates Kingdom righteousness

- True righteousness is not a checklist of external rules; it is a heart reshaped by _____.
- Jesus fulfills the prophetic promise of the _____ _____ revealed in Jeremiah 31:33, Ezekiel 36:26, Isaiah 54:10.
- The Beatitudes describe the transformed _____ of those who belong to his New Covenant Kingdom.

3) The _____ shown - Jesus calls us to display His righteousness

- The Law shows us God's standard and our need for a Savior. Jesus came, kept the Law perfectly, bore our failure on the cross, and now grants us His _____.
- Being "salt and light" means our lives ought to _____ the character of our King, bringing glory to the Father.

Going Deeper

1) What stood out to you most from Jesus' statement that he came not to abolish the Law and Prophets, but to fulfill them (Matthew 5:17)? What does this tell us about how we should view the Old Testament?

2) In what ways does Jesus fulfill the Old Testament? Of the three discussed—prophetically, doctrinally, and actively—which is most meaningful to you, and why?

3) The Law reveals God's standard of righteousness, but Jesus teaches that true righteousness goes deeper than outward conformity. What is the difference between simply following rules and having a heart that has been transformed by God?

4) How do the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:3–12) describe the character of someone who belongs to Jesus' Kingdom? Which of these characteristics do you find most challenging or convicting?

5) Why is it important to remember that Jesus perfectly fulfilled the Law before calling us to Kingdom righteousness? How does this protect us from turning Christianity into another form of "try harder" religion?

6) Jesus says his followers are "the salt of the earth" and "the light of the world" (Matthew 5:13–16). What does it practically look like for a Christian to display the character of Jesus in everyday life?

7) Where are you most tempted to measure your spiritual life by outward behaviour rather than by what is happening in your heart? What might genuine heart transformation look like in that area?

8) If Jesus has fulfilled the Law and given us his righteousness, what should motivate our obedience now? How does grace change the way we think about holiness and obedience?
